

Laidback, Bright And Sea-Breezy

Living on the coast is all about getting back to nature, about walking on the beach & in the national park; about relaxation, sun, sand, surf & indoor-outdoor living.

It's also about peace & quiet too. So if you are looking for all of the above, you can have this & more with this superb residence at 21 Wavecrest Drive, Castaways Beach.

Set on a larger than average site, just a few minutes' walk from the water's edge it features numerous stylish touches such as:

Neutral colour scheme carried throughout to enhance the light, airy appeal

Kitchen of white, timber & shimmer - the ultimate combination for classic & contemporary

Inviting views to the pool and gardens from the redesigned kitchen to add a little extra spice to meal preparation

Caesar stone bench top & stainless steel appliances make cooking twice as much fun

Family room opening out to a sheltered poolside entertaining area emphasises the relaxed beachside lifestyle the property offers
